

Best Supplier Award For Reich China

Liutech, as part of the Atlas Copco Group, is focused on its main business the production of mobile air compressors. The stationary compressor business moved to Atlas Copco Wuxi in 2018. Since 2016 Reich China has been a direct supplier of Liutech.

During these years Reich China offered the best support for delivery times and new projects. As a reliable supplier Reich China delivers a huge quantity of high quality couplings without any complaints. In addition, many other quality services are provided. Liutech hopes for more new projects to cooperate with Reich China.

Reich China was voted as the best partner by Liutech at Christmas Eve 2019 and won the trophy for the best cooperation partner

Also many thanks from our side for the very good cooperation and awarded trust - We are looking forward to continue the successful partnership.
